AFTERNOON SESSION.

The President called the Convention to order. Elder N. A. Purefoy offered prayer.

The report of the Board on State Missions and Colportage was read as follows :

ARMY COLPORTAGE.

At the first meeting of your Board, in November, 1864, the armies of the South were still in the field and it was deemed an imperative duty to continue and even to extend our efforts to furnish them with the preaching of the Gospel, and with tracts and other religious reading matter. Elder N. B. Cobb, who for nearly three years had labored so efficiently as Corresponding Secretary of the Board, was re-appointed to that office and instructed to continue his operations. He accepted the appointment and labored earnestly and successfully in behalf of our heroic men till the close of the struggle and the disbanding of our armies rendered further effort in that direction impracticable and unnecessary. That much good was accomplished; that many brave and self-sacrificing sons of North Carolina were led to Christ; that many others were reclaimed from backsliding; and many stimulated and encouraged and kept within the path of duty through the influences thus brought to bear on them, we know full well. But all of that pleasing record will not be disclosed till the last great day.

The following is a brief summary of the financial condition of the Board from November, 1864, till April, 1865, at which time operations in this department were suspended:

Balance on hand from last year, about	$ 7,000 00
Amount contributed by the Churches,	18,100 89
	<hr/>
Total,	25,100 89
Amount expended,	19,806 75
Balance on hand,	$ 5,294 14

This amount was principally in Confederate funds and most of it was lost. From the wreck only fifty-five dollars were saved.

In reviewing this department of our labors your Board feel a peculiar pleasure. It is equally gratifying, whether we consider the claims of the soldiers on us, thus partially met, or the cheerfulness and liberality with which the brethren throughout the State responded to the appeals which were made from time to time, or the results of the efforts which were put forth in this direction. We hope to collect the details of our operations in this department for each year in time for insertion in the Minutes.

STATE MISSIONS.

At the late session of your body, attention was directed to the importance of State Missions, and the wants of that field were kept steadily in view. But owing to the force of circumstances, the scarcity of ministers, the demand for their services in the army and the absorbing interest everywhere felt in behalf of the soldiers, little could be accomplished in that direction. With the close of the war, the interruption of all facilities for communication with the Churches, the prostration of business, the want of a circulating medium and the disorder and confusion which ensued rendered all efforts futile for the time and our operations were suspended. At a recent meeting of your Board the claims of the Sabbath School enterprise were brought to our attention; and, after mature deliberation, it was decided to turn over the funds on hand to the Sabbath School and Publication Board. At the same time Elder N. B. Cobb received and accepted the appointment of Corresponding Secretary of that Board.

Though all our efforts in behalf of State Missions have been suspended, your Board would call attention to the increasing importance of that department of Christian labor. Many sections which could once show self-sustaining Churches are now impoverished and destitute of regular preaching. Many Churches in our small but important towns, which, after being aided by the Convention for years, had begun to be independent, are once more in need of assistance. Besides all this, there is a wide and interesting field opened to us among the negroes recently released from servitude. They are now occupying a new position, with new trials and temptations, and they have peculiar claims on us. To save them from vice and utter moral ruin we must throw around them the restraining influences of the Gospel.

On motion, it was made the special order for 10 o'clock to-morrow.

The report of the Board of Education was read as follows:

Owing to circumstances which are well known, the Educational enterprises of the denomination and of the whole country have been, in a great measure, suspended. Your Board hail with pleasure the re-opening of this wide field of usefulness and urge its immediate re-occupation.

W. T. WALTERS, Secretary.

After remarks by Elders Brooks, Walters, Young, Hardwick, Purefoy, Skinner and McDowell, the report was adopted.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to report on the condition of Wake Forest College.

Committee, Elders Cobb, Brooks and Young.

The Committee to consider the propriety of appointing a General Agent, reported as follows:

Your Committee recommend the appointment of an Agent who shall take the general oversight of the Conventional work, canvass the State; appoint Assistants and raise funds, and report as the Convention may direct.

On motion, it was made the special order for one-and-a-half o'clock to-morrow.

The Convention then adjourned.

Prayer by Elder P. D. Gold.

FRIDAY MORNING.

The Convention met: the President in the Chair.

Prayer by Elder Young.

The roll was called and the proceedings were read.

Elders W. M. Baldwin and David Smith were recognized as Delegates from the Jefferson Association, a body which has not heretofore been represented in this Convention. They were cordially welcomed by the President.

Brother Todd, of Petersburg, was recognized as a representative of the General Association of Virginia.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to nominate Boards for the coming year.

Committee, brethren P. A. Dunn and W. J. Palmer, and Elder W. T. Brooks.

The report of the Board on Foreign Missions was read as follows:

In the department of Foreign Missions, little has been done during the past year. This has arisen, not from a want of interest in the work, but partly from the fact that we have been entirely cut off from communication with our brethren in heathen lands, most of the time; partly from the want of money which prevails in every part of the State. The way is now open, and it is hoped that there will be a renewal of efforts on the part of the Baptists of North Carolina, in this enterprise. During the war some of our Missionaries have died and some have been compelled by failing health to leave their stations, but some of them are still there and prosecuting their holy work. Devoutly recognizing the hand of God in watching over them during four years of desolating war at home, in providing for them and shielding them from suffering, let all take encouragement and contribute again according as the Lord hath prospered them. Let them also pray that other laborers may be called to go into the vast fields of the East to proclaim the unsearchable riches of Christ.

After remarks by Elder Skinner, Walters and McDowell, prayer was offered by Elder Royall in behalf of our Missions, and the report was adopted.

Business was then suspended to hear a sermon from Elder Gold. Text, John 3: 6.

When business was resumed, the report of the Board on State Missions, that being the special order, was taken up. Pending the motion for its adoption, remarks were made by Elders McDowell, Hufham, Gold, Young, and Hardwick; and the Convention adjourned.

Prayer by Elder Wingate.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was called to order by the President.

Prayer was offered by Elder Stradley.

The consideration of the report on State Missions was resumed. Remarks were made by Elders Hardwick and Cobb, and the report was adopted.

The report of the Committee on the propriety of appointing a General Agent, was called up. Pending the motion for its adoption, remarks were made by Elders Hufham, Skinner, Walters and J. S. Purefoy, and the Convention adjourned.

Prayer by Elder Purefoy.

SATURDAY MORNING.

The Convention met: the President in the Chair.

Prayer was offered by Elder Cobb.

The roll was called and the proceedings were read.

On motion, it was decided that speeches during the remainder of the present session, be limited to five minutes each.

The Committee on the Condition of Wake Forest College reported as follows:

The Board of Trustees, at a meeting in 1862, took the advice of the best financiers of the State, ordered their Treasurers to re-invest $20,000 of the old North Carolina State bonds in Confederate 8 per cent. bonds, and to invest all moneys received by him, in bonds of like character. He accordingly made the following investments in Confederate bonds, which are now worthless:

Of the Old State bonds,	$19 500
Of the endowment,	18 000
From the Blount Estate,	8 000
From the Mims Estate,	500
Total loss,	$46 000

They have still on hand,

In State Bonds,	$28 000
In notes on Individuals,	26 000
From Blount Estate,	3 300
In Warren Fund,	1 000
Total,	$57 300

Your Committee are of the opinion that the present financial condition of Wake Forest College will compare favorably with that of any other Southern Institution of learning, and that no blame should be attached to the Treasurer or Board of Trustees for the losses sustained by investing in Confederate Bonds.

N. B. COBB,
W. T. BROOKS,
W. M. YOUNG.

The report was adopted.

The following Committees were announced:

To Nominate Persons to fill Vacancies in the Board of Trustees of Wake Forest College, Elders McDowell, Walters and Hardwick.

On Periodicals, brethren Palmer and W. B. Royall, and Elder Gold.

On Time and Place for the next Session of the Convention, Elders Skinner, Young and Baldwin.

To Nominate Preachers for next Session, brethren Foote, Powell and Palmer.

The report of Committee on the appointment of a General Agent was called up. Remarks were made by Elders Hufham, Skinner, Brooks, Young, Wingate, McDowell, Hardwick and Walters. The whole matter was finally referred to the Boards of the Convention.

The report of the Sabbath School and Publication Board was read as follows:

At the first meeting of the Board, in November, 1864, Elder J. K. Howell, who had filled the office of Corresponding Secretary with so much efficiency and success during the preceding year was re-appointed. He accepted the appointment and continued his work till compelled by the force of circumstances to abandon it. The wisdom and energy and self-denial with which he discharged the duties of his office under so many difficulties and discouragements entitle him to the thanks of the denomination throughout the State.

The following is a statement of the operations of the Board from November, 1864, to April, 1865:

Amount on hand in Books, paper, &c.,	$ 5,143 85
Rec'd of J. S. Purefoy, collection at Convention,	997 48
Rec'd of N. B. Cobb, collection at Convention.	350 00
Rec'd for Books sold,	1,147 99
Rec'd in Contributions,	60 00
Rec'd on profits for paper and printing,	2,500 14
Total,	$10,199 36

EXPENDITURES.

Paid for paper,	$1,411 26
“ “ press work,	470 09
“ Missionaries,	500 00
“ for paper, type and printing,	1,775 00
Total,	$4,156 35
Balance on hand,	$6,043 89

WORK DONE.

Published 10,000 N. C. Baptist Almanacs; several thousand tracts; 8 reading books for Sabbath Schools, 5,000 in each addition, making 40,000 in all.—Four tracts and a new edition of the Wreath were partly set up when the city was occupied by Sherman's forces. They scattered and carried off much of the material and it is impossible to ascertain with definiteness the value of what is left.

At a late meeting of the Board, Elder N. B. Cobb was appointed Corresponding Secretary. He accepted the appointment and entered on the duties of the office. Your Board believe him peculiarly fitted for the work both by natural endowment and by his large experience as Superintendent of army Colportage; and if he should be able to continue in the field it is hoped that the coming year will show a larger amount of work performed in this department than at any previous period of our history. Such a result is greatly to be desired and prayed for.

Within the last few years there has been a revival of interest in the Sabbath School cause among the Churches. With a suitable person to keep the enterprise before them and aid them in procuring the books they may be very extensively enlisted in it. Then there are many regions into which Missionaries may be sent to established schools and scatter tracts, Bibles and religious books, sowing the seeds which are to bring forth an abundant harvest hereafter. Some books are needed which no one can so well prepare as those who live among us and know our institutions and wants. It has been the aim of the Board to keep this fact steadily in view and to act accordingly. In addition to the works published by them as enumerated above, they have recently brought out a new edition of the Catechism for beginners, of which copies are herewith presented. Other books are in course of preparation and it is hoped they will be published during the coming year. It is also the purpose of the Board to establish a depository where Sabbath Schools may be supplied with the best books issued both at the North and at the South. Your Board are deeply impressed with the peculiar importance of this work at this time.—

Christians need it; but the children need it most of all. Many of them are left orphans and destitute of property. They are already exposed to evil influences and these influences will increase in number and strength, through the coming years. Nor is the State at present in a condition to afford the partial remedy which it has heretofore given in the common school system. The Sabbath School presents the only present remedy to many of those children. While it opens to them the doors of knowledge, it points them, at the same time, to the paths which lead to life eternal.

The Committee on time and place for the next session, recommend Wednesday before the 4th Sabbath in May, as the time, and Raleigh as the place. The report was adopted.

On motion, Elder Young was requested to prepare a letter to the Churches of the State on Pastoral Support; the letter to be published in the BIBLICAL RECORDER and inserted in the Minutes.

The Committee to nominate Preachers for the next session of the Convention reported as follows:

For the Introductory Sermon—Elder Hardwick; Alternate, Elder Gold.

For the Missionary Sermon—Elder Young; Alternate, Elder Mitchell.

The Committee to suggest a plan of instruction for the Colored people reported as follows:

Recognizing our obligations, as we have ever done, to instruct the ignorant, to assist the needy, and to do good to all men, as we have opportunity, your Committee can but regard the religious instruction of our Colored people as a special duty imposed by the Providence of God on Southern Christians.

By recent events, over which neither we nor they have had any control, their relations to us have been essentially changed and as they may become a permanent part of our population, it is our obvious and imperative duty to furnish them, as far as in our power lies, all necessary religious instruction.

We therefor advise and earnestly exhort all our Pastors to preach regularly to the Colored People of their congregations, and all our Churches to organize Sunday Schools for them.

We are happy to state that Sunday Schools already organized by some of our Churches, afford the most gratifying indications of complete success.

Respectfully submitted,

A. McDOWELL, Chairman.

The Committee on Periodicals reported as follows:

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the following :

Resolved, That we hail with pleasure the resumption of the publication of the Biblical Recorder, under the charge of Elder J. D. Hufham; and that we recommend the Recorder to the cordial and hearty support of the denomination.

Resolved, That we urge the Pastors of all the Churches in the State to make earnest efforts for extending its circulation among their congregations.

W. J. PALMER, Chairman.

Pending the motion for the adoption of the report, remarks were made by brother Palmer and Elder Young; and the Convention adjourned.

Prayer by Elder W. M. Baldwin.
